

Deaths of Children Reviewed by the Child Death Review Committee

Results of Review Released	Demographic Information	Classification of Death	Cause of Death	Recommendations and Response
March 9, 2018	Nine-year-old male	Natural	aspiration pneumonia as a consequence of a degenerative neurological disorder	No recommendations made by the CDRC
February 15, 2018	12-year-old female	Natural	complications of a rare natural genetic disorder	No recommendations made by the CDRC
February 15, 2018	Eight-year-old female	Natural	complications of a congenital cerebral condition	No recommendations made by the CDRC
February 15, 2018	Six-month-old male	Natural	complications of myotubular myopathy	No recommendations made by the CDRC
February 15, 2018	Three-month-old male	Accident	asphyxiation secondary to an unsafe sleep situation	That the acting chief medical officer of health consider the possibility of launching a public awareness campaign (which may include television and/or radio advertisements) to educate the public on the subject of bed-sharing and inappropriate sleep surfaces, as it is apparent that the printed literature is not having the desired effect in preventing child deaths of this nature. Response issued on March 27
May 11, 2018	Newborn	Natural	complications associated with prematurity	No recommendations made by the CDRC